The reason I went away and filmed that movie is because at that time, I didn't trust myself, didn't trust the studio, the producers, the actors or even myself. I didn't have my own ideas as to what was important, what was what, what could be done to make this movie. All of that was taken out of my hands until it was all decided and, on February 7, 2011, the movie went from something that was in my head to something that really mattered..
